Objective

This pan-European seminar offers a platform for exchange among court staff members and bailiffs from all over the EU. Participants have the possibility to exchange experiences, look at current and forthcoming issues in judicial cooperation in criminal matters in the EU, and make personal contacts.

Methodology

The training consists of multiple modules, each covering a specific European criminal law topic. Each module starts with a presentation on the topic, followed by case studies and exercises. While solving the exercises, the participants will familiarize themselves with the legal sources and online tools relevant to the topic. The training materials have been developed by renowned EU experts and aim to aid court staff in actively applying the EU criminal law.

You will learn about...

- The concept of mutual legal assistance
- the state of play of the instruments of mutual recognition in the EU
- how to apply the European Arrest Warrant and European Investigation Order
- the new legal framework on freezing and confiscation in the EU.

Who should attend?

Court staff and bailiffs from EU Member States who need to work with EU criminal law instruments to fulfil judicial or procedural functions. Participation is only possible upon nomination by the project partners.

Terms and conditions of participation

Selection

1. Participation is on selection. The number of places available is limited. Participants should have a basic knowledge of English. Interested court staff may register via their respective national training institutions. Interested bailiffs may register via UEHJ. A response will be sent to every applicant after this deadline. We advise you not to make any bookings before you receive our confirmation.

Travel and Accommodation

- 2. Participants will receive a fixed contribution towards their travel expenses and are asked to book their own travel. The condition for payment of this contribution is to sign all attendance sheets at the event. No supporting documents are needed. The amount of the contribution will be determined by the EU unit cost calculation guidelines, which are based on the distance from the participant's place of work to the seminar location and will not take account of the participant's actual travel costs.
- 3. Travel costs from outside Poland: participants can calculate the contribution to which they will be entitled on the European Commission website (https://era-comm.eu/go/calculator). The distance should be calculated from their place of work to the seminar location.
- 4. For those travelling within Poland, the contribution for travel (round trip) is fixed at €20 (for a distance between 50km and 400km). Please note that no contribution will be paid for travel under 50km. For more information, please consult p.10 on https://era-comm.eu/go/unit-cost-decision-travel.
- 5. Accommodation costs: international participants and national participants travelling more than 50km one-way will receive a fixed contribution of €103 per night for up to two nights' accommodation. For more information, please consult p.13 on https://era-comm.eu/go/unit-cost-decision-travel
- 6. These rules do not apply to representatives of EU Institutions and Agencies who are required to cover their own travel and accommodation.
- 7. Successful applicants will be sent the relevant claim form and information on how to obtain payment of the contribution to their expenses. Please note that no payment is possible if the registered participant cancels their participation for any reason.

Other services

8. One lunch, beverages consumed during the event and the seminar documents are offered by ERA. One joint dinner are also included.

Participation

- 9. Participation at the whole seminar is required and participants' presence will be recorded.
- 10. A list of participants including each participant's address will be made available to all participants unless ERA receives written objection from the participant no later than one week prior to the beginning of the event.
- 11. The participant will be asked to give permission for their address and other relevant information to be stored in ERA's database in order to provide information about future ERA events, publications and/or other developments in the participant's area of interest.
- A certificate of attendance will be distributed at the end of the seminar.
